 Ethiraj College for Women

 Ethiraj College for Women

 @ECW Chennai

Shri. V. L. Ethiraj, the visionary founder of Ethiraj College for Women, was a charismatic barrister who truly reflected the spirit of his time. A methodical and accomplished professional, he earned numerous accolades in his professional field. True to his stature and refined sensibilities, Shri. V. L. Ethiraj led a life marked by dignity and comfort. Yet, he was equally known for his frugality, a trait rooted in discipline and foresight, as he carefully safeguarded the wealth he had earned through unwavering dedication.

Although he was frequently approached for contributions to local charities, Shri. V. L. Ethiraj would respond with a gentle smile and steer the conversation towards his true passion: women's education. He firmly believed that "Education is the great leveller in society" and consistently voiced his concern for the condition of Indian women, whom he described as "depressed, oppressed, and suppressed." He held the conviction that prioritizing women's education in India was essential, not only to help women liberate themselves from societal constraints, but also to accelerate the development of their families and the nation.

This deep-seated belief led to establish the Ethiraj College for Women on July 2, 1948, at the premises of the former Hobart School for Muslim Girls in Royapettah. As the Founder-Chairman, Shri. V. L. Ethiraj remained actively engaged in the institution's administration and steady growth, ensuring it stayed true to its mission of empowerment through education.

In the twilight of his life, Shri. V. L. Ethiraj made a final journey to England on May 5th, 1960, seeking advanced medical consultation. Upon his return to Madras on August 11th, it became evident that his health had greatly deteriorated. On August 18th, 1960, he left this world peacefully at his residence, leaving behind a profound and enduring legacy, Ethiraj College for Women, a symbol of progress and empowerment for generations of women.

Thiru. V. M. Muralidharan,
Chairman,
Ethiraj College Trust

Member,

Higher Education

Education is the key that unlocks the treasure trove of our potential, revealing hidden strengths and fostering the courage to acknowledge our weaknesses. In today's world, education for women is a beacon of empowerment, illuminating the path to independence and self-sufficiency. Our institution is dedicated to providing a nurturing environment where women can overcome self-doubt and hesitation, and unlock their full potential. We strive to create a democratic space where they can showcase their talents, hone their skills, and emerge as confident, capable individuals. We firmly believe in the transformative power of education and its ability to shape not just individuals, but also societies.
