M2.1 ETHIRAJ COLLEGE FOR WOMEN

Ethiraj College for Women is an autonomous college situated in the heart of the city of Chennai with 9 acres of campus area.

Vellore Lakshmanaswamy Ethiraj (18 July 1890 – 18 August 1960) was an Indian lawyer and philanthropist who founded Ethiraj College for Women, a college in Chennai, India. He was the first Indian to be appointed as Crown Prosecutor by the British Raj.

The formative years witnessed a strong foundation through introduction of undergraduate courses in Economics, Botany, Chemistry, History, Zoology and English Literature along with the infrastructural facilities, resulting in the construction of the Science Block, Hostel, Open Air Theatre and the Old Library Block. The landmark development of this decade was the auditorium, which to this day remains the pride of the college. The decade of 1968–1978 saw the growth of the college with the introduction of Commerce, Mathematics and Physics at the UG level and a number of PG courses and the construction of PG block.

A significant development in the college was the introduction of evening college in 1981. The thrust was on research with introduction of M.Phil and Ph.D programmes. The addition of the Annexe Campus of 59 grounds augured the new direction in the growth of the College. 1990-2000 saw a steady growth with the introduction job-oriented self-funded UG courses like Corporate Secretaryship, B.Com (Bank Management), BBA (Business Administration), B.Sc. Biochemistry, B.Sc. Microbiology and M.Sc. Plant Biology & Plant Bio-technology and the introduction of post-graduate AICTE approved courses MBA and MCA, which was an important milestone in the growth of the college. The construction of New Science Block and dormitories in the hostel marked the new phase of development.

The beginning of the next decade witnessed the Day College becoming autonomous and the momentous growth of the College in its infrastructure: the N & D block, COE block, New Library, New hostel, Business Studies and Information Technology Block, all adding up to 2,66,000 Sqft. Besides these, the College has a Language Lab, Instrumentation Centre, Online access to the holdings in the Library, Internet Centre and Computer Labs. The College entered the global arena by signing an MOU with British Council for teaching Business English Certificate and First Certificate in English.

The Department of Mathematics (S.S) was established in the year 1989 and post graduate status was acquired in the year 1994. The sanctioned strength in the UG course is 70 whereas in the PG course, the strength is 40. Our students have secured many university ranks consecutively right from the inception of the department. It was started with an initial strength of 50 students and one staff – Ms. Nirmala Prasad, when only 5 colleges in the state of Tamil Nadu were offering the course for women. Since then the department has made significant strides in imparting Commerce education. Six years after its inception, in 1981, the M.Com degree course was added. The Department of Commerce (self-supporting) was started in June 1981 with an initial strength of 70 students. With the pressing demand for the course, one more batch with an additional strength of 70 students came into force in 1984-85. This acted as a trend-setter for starting other courses in the Evening College. The Department has had a meteoric rise, it being the first among women's colleges in the city of Chennai to be upgraded into a Research Dept. - the M.Phil course in 1989-90 and the Doctoral Program in 1994-95.
